

Ecosystem Discussion Questions

Why do animals adapt differently?

How do all of the animals survive in the same environment?

How would humans adapt under different conditions? Little water? Little sun? Little heat? Little food or water?

What happens when an animal is blocked off from something it needs to survive?

How quickly do adaptations take place? Could an animal become extinct if it can't adapt to changes in its environment?